SURF RIDER WINS BABYLON HANDICAP BY HALF A LENGTH

Madden Entry, Favorite in Aqueduct Feature, Finishes in a Rush—Sweep By Second.

By Vincent Treanor.

AQUEDUCT RACE TRACK, Sept. 27.—Surf Rider on the Babylon Handicap this afternoon, which was worth $4,975 to the winner, after overcoming all kinds of bad racing luck. At the end he was half a length in front of Sweep By with Ray Jay a length and a half back. My Play got a good break and led to the stretch but then quit. Surf Rider was the favorite.

Audacious proved that he is a very good race horse just now in winning the Babylon Handicap. He followed the fast pace set by Two Feathers, lost a couple of lengths by a wide turn into the stretch and still came on to win a handy victory. Two Feathers, with a lot of early speed, saved every possible inch of ground and, although tiring at the end, had enough left to stall off Capt. Alcock. Donnacoma made a bluff of running up to the field at the far turn, after breaking slowly, but dropped out of it finally.

Glenbells and Miriam Cooper finished heads apart in the third, a maiden race, with Miriam Cooper was the pacemaker and was in front by herself to the eighth pole, when Glenbells hove alongside of her. From there home it was a station for stride battle. Glenbells outdistanced Miriam to win by a narrow margin. Furious finished third after being prominent most of the way.

Alex Hamilton won the opening event in a gallop. The race had all the earmarks of a shoot-in. Jack Scott, an odds-on choice, off second, never improved his position, and at the end was five lengths back of Alex Hamilton. Wynwood finished third of a strong-out field. Before the race Jack Scott was handed out as almost a sure thing, but raced pounds below his real form.

INSPECTOR HENRY PLEADED POVERTY WHILE CARRYING $21,000 WALL ST. ACCOUNT

At Time He Borrowed $500 From
Attorney for Italian Steamship Line
He Was "Cleaning Up" in Stocks
—Hughes Demands Chance to Clear His Pier Detective Business.

The Wall-Street activities of Police Inspector Dominick Henry occupied the attention of the Meyer Committee on the Affairs of New York City at the opening of its hearing in the City Hall to-day.

Before the committee was called to order, former Inspector of Police Edward P. Hughes marched into the meeting at the head of a squad of men carrying bundles of file cases.

Mr. Hughes went to Elton R. Brown, counsel to the committee, and demanded an opportunity to be allowed to go on the witness stand to deny the statements made yesterday by James Auditors, "the millionaire stevedore."

Mr. Hughes said he especially wanted to refute the statement that Police Commissioner Enright was a "fifty-fifty partner" in the Edward P. Hughes Detective Service, the enterprise in which Mr. Hughes embarked on retiring from the department a week or two after Mr. Enright became Commissioner.

Mr. Brown announced that Mr. Hughes would have his opportunity to-morrow morning after counsel for the committee had a chance to go over the records Mr. Hughes had submitted.

Former Commissioner of Accounts Leonard M. Wallstein and Deputy Assistant Attorney General Samuel C. Berger drew up chairs at Mr. Brown's shoulders when Robert S. Winsmore of the firm of Billings, Olcott and Winsmore, Mr. Henry's brokers, was called to the stand.

Mr. Brown set out to show that at the time Dominick Henry went to Francis Gilbert, lawyer for the Italian General Navigation Company, and said he was "broke" and in trouble and asked Mr. Gilbert for money, Mr. Henry was actually winner in a Wall Street deal and had available an account of $21,000.

"You had a joint account in 1920 with Dominick Henry and his wife Mary C. Henry?" asked Mr. Brown. "Yes, sir," said Mr. Winsmore. "He also had an account."

Mr. Brown put into evidence the account of the Inspector.

HENRY PAID $18,615.69 OCT. 21, 1920.

Q. I ask you to state the transactions on the 20th and 21st days of May, 1920, between your house and Dominick Henry, the 20th or 21st being the date on which he received the first $500 from Gilbert? A. This record shows that on the 20th we received $3,000, and on the 21st, $18,615.69.

Q. For what? A. In payment of securities which we had bought for him, and in order to fully balance his account.

Q. I see. What were the securities? A. Our books show that the securities were 100 shares of Brooklyn Rapid Transit, 513 shares of General Motors, of which five hundred and a half shares had been bought for him, the remainder of the 513 shares having been received for him in a dividend on his stock. There were also 300 shares of Kennicott Copper, which he had delivered to us.

Q. There is another check there payable to Mr. Henry? A. Yes. It is $2,000.

Q. And the money was spent the rest in "feeling Broadway"?

U. S. SUBMARINE R-6 SINKS AFTER GAS EXPLOSION; 2 LOST

Still a Chance That Missing
Man May Be in Airtight
Compartment.

SAILOR SAVES OTHERS.

Torpedo Tube Collapses While Vessel Is at Anchor in San Pedro Harbor.

SAN PEDRO, Cal., Sept. 27.—Two men are believed to have lost their lives when the United States submarine R-6 sank in the outer harbor here last night, the result of an unexplained accident. It was officially stated at the submarine base here to-day.

In addition to an electrician named Spaulberg, who was reported to have been blown from the sinking craft, J. Dreffan, a seaman, is reported imprisoned in the submarine.

Divers were working in 45 feet of water this morning alongside the R-6 endeavoring to fix hawsers to the craft which would raise it possible to raise her to the surface. It was possible, according to naval men, that anyone inside might have escaped to an airtight compartment, in which life might be sustained for forty-eight hours.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—Lieut. I. R. Chambers, who was in command of the submarine R-6, is reported to have been the last man to make an escape from the craft when it sank late last night in the outer harbor at San Pedro with a reported loss of three members of the crew.

After Lieut. Chambers left the submarine he immediately began to aid members of the crew unable to swim to get to lifeboats and pieces of floating timbers.

According to a story told by witnesses of the accident who were aboard the tender Camden and the sister ships, the R-6 was tied up at 5 o'clock last night with two hawsers hindering her to three sister ships and two hawsers connecting the string of submarines with the mother ship.

Prior to the disaster the entire crew, it was said, was inside the hull getting torpedoes ready for battle practice. Suddenly the rear torpedo practice apparently yielded to sea pressure and opened. The vessel began to fill rapidly and the members of the crew rushed for the conning tower. One of the first men to reach the outside of the submarine was seen to cut the hawsers, releasing the other submarines.

Just as the man, believed to have been Spaulberg, who was reported drowned, reached the conning tower ladder, there was what seemed to be

LICENSES OF THREE
JOCKEYS ARE REVOKED.

Enner, Veargin and Co.
Ban of Men.

AQUEDUCT RACE TRACK, Sept. 27.—After a meeting of the stewards to-day it was announced that the licenses of Jockeys Enner, Collins and Veargin had been revoked by the Jockey Club.

Collins rode Saddle Ring in a questionable race at Saratoga and Veargin rode Leather Face at the Spa, the day Natural Bridge won. Leather Face was taken back of the pace that event and only when practically eaten was allowed to run. No official reasons were given by the officials for their action.

THREE-BASE HIT BY ELLERBE AND HOME RUN BY SISLER GIVE BROWNS LEAD IN FIRST

Only 8,000 Fans at the Polo Grounds to See Contest With St. Louis—
Harry Harper Pitching Against Urban Shocker.

By Isaac Shuman

POLO GROUNDS, Sept. 27.—Only 8,000 fans were at the Polo Grounds to-day to see the Yankees battle with the St. Louis Browns in the former's fight to clinch finally their hold on the American League pennant.

Harry Harper was Huggins's choice on the pitching mound. Schang was behind the bat.

Urban Shocker, twirled for the Browns. There was no enthusiasm lost however, even though the fans did not turn out in numbers. Babe Ruth and the Yankees were greeted with prolonged cheers as they made their way on the field for preliminary practice.
